Large Crowd From All Sections of State Expected Monday to Hear Testimony in Most Revolting Crime.

TUPELO, Miss., March 25. (Spl )-When court convenes here Monday morning to try Charley Marshall, of Monroe county, on a charge of murdering the baby of the Miller girl, near Amory, it is likely that the courthouse Judge Lynch Presides. will not hold the spectators, who are expected to come to hear the sensational trial from every section of the state of Mississippi.

itate of Mississippi.

It is probable that only a few hours will be taken up in selecting a jury. and the taking of testimony should begin not later than Tuesday morning, and it is probable by this time next week Charley Marshall will know his fate.

week Charley Marshall will know his fate.

Sheriff Inma and his deputies are souring Lee county, day and night serving summons on the veniremen. Everything is quiet here and the defendants. Charley Marshall and his father and brother, who are also charged with participating in the murder of the Milier family, are safely guarded in the iall.

It is generally understood that the defendant or his counsel have made any statement to that effect. It was thought for a time that a plea of self-defense would be entered by Marshall.

Charley Marshall will be the first of the trio tried. He is charged with beating out the brains of the baby of the murdered Milier girl, of which he is said to be the father.

A Parallel Murder.

As the killing of the four Millers oc-curred practically simultaneously, it is probable that the testimosy in the case to be tried Monday will recite the de-tails of the entire tragedy, the killing of the various victims being so close-related as to constitute one continuous criminal act, prompted by the same impulse. Although each killing consti-tuted a separate murder, they were so closely related that it would be im-possible to give the facts and circum-stances surrounding one of them with-out describing all the others. Perhaps no case in the history of Mississippi has aroused more interest than this one has. Its gruesome details

No special ventre was summoned to

No special venire was summoned in that case, no change of venue was demanded, no automobile was used to convey the defendant to a zone of safety, and no martial guard escorted him to his neeliminary truit.

A "venire" of determined men, mostiy formers, gathered in the little bax schoolhouse, where the numbered man had been tesching, and arraigned the defendant before the bar of public sentiment, found him guilty, according to his own confession, and executed him without delay.

Groups of men standing on the street corners yesterday and today discussing the present case, invariably recalled and recited the horrible details of the murier of the Ridings family; and expecially was this the case with those men who came from that locality, and who have passed middle life.

The similarity of the case at bar to the one above monitoned has reasynthesed interest in that catastropre, and comment on the present case invariably brings up a discussion of its counterpart, which transpired nearly a half century ago.

But times have changed, and although the good people of Menroe county are as quick to resent an injuntice as they were then, they are willing to let the law take its course and rest their claim for justice on the judgment of an impartial jury.

One Look at This New Chalmers Makes You Want It

OU can't get into an argument about the beauty of this new Chalmers. Everyone admits it. Just one look suffices. Its coach, with large square doors, infinite detail, engaging appointments, superior high finish establishes a precedent.

And when you sink into those new type cushions that tilt deeply you say to yourself: "Here is comfort, indeed,"

Then let loose the power stream. Note the silence. You can scarcely hear a sound. Watch for vibration. You detect none-not even the semblance of a fender quivering.

All throbbing is gone. Hot Spot and Ram's horn make sure this rhythm. They "digest" the gas before it gets inside the engine, and they "feed" each eylinder quickly and evenly. They make results de luxe in power, and that is why so many now say Chalmers is one of the few great cars of the world.
